Open Letter to the Australian Prime Minister in the MJA

An open letter by twelve distinguished Australian medical and health experts, including DEA’s National Secretary David Shearman and six members of DEA’s scientific committee, have urged Prime Minister Tony Abbott to include climate change at the G20 meeting in November.

The letter, published in the Medical Journal of Australia, attracted extensive media coverage, including:

Sydney Morning Herald and The Age
Push for climate change on G20 list

The Australian
Scientists urge PM to put climate on G20 agenda

The Guardian
Tony Abbott under pressure to put climate change on G20 meeting agenda

Australian Doctor
(content available to Australian registered health professionals only)
Health experts urge Abbott to act on climate change

Newcastle Herald
Doctors demand Tony Abbott act on climate change

6 minutes
Climate change seen as major health threat